Ingredients

100g white chocolate, finely chopped
200ml thickened cream
100g pistachios, finely ground
75g desiccated coconut

Method - VANILLA BUTTER CAKE

In a large jug box together the sour cream and milk. Add a third of the flour to the mixer and mix until combined. Add half the sour cream and milk and mix well. Repeat, alternating between flour and milk mixture until all ingredients are incorporated.

STEP 4

Bake for 30-35 mins or until an inserted skewer comes out clean. Leave to cool in tin for 15 mins before turning out onto a rack to cool completely.

Method - PISTACHIO ICING

STEP 1

Pour desiccated coconut and ground pistachios onto a large shallow dish and set aside. When ready to assemble, chill cake in fridge for 15mins to firm it up and make it easier to handle. Use a 10x6cm tree shaped cookie cutter to cut 12-14 tree shapes from the vanilla cake.

STEP 2

Place the white chocolate in a large bowl. Gently heat the cream in a saucepan until just before boiling point then pour the cream over the chocolate. Let it sit for 10-15 seconds then stir until completely smooth.

STEP 3

Dip each tree shaped cake into the white chocolate mixture then roll in the pistachio and coconut mixture. Once all cakes are coated, leave to set for 30 minutes before serving.
